

Some Dreams

Walter Pichler

your dream is getting rich - you try as hard as you can you struggle by all means to become the first of man why do you break your back - why do you haste and run you'll get your place when all is said and done

some dreams of many - you'll see - some dreams will come true the light of your path shall rise as the morning sun and all the days that follow will be brighter than the days just gone where are you running to - where is your port of call

and
